Blue Boson Token

Blue Boson token means an ERC-20 digital token issued by the Company. Boson token is set up in the Ethereum protocol. Therefore, any malfunction, unplanned function or unexpected operation of the Ethereum protocol may cause the Boson Token network to malfunction or operate in a way that is not expected or desired.

In order to fund projects and launch of the application, Boson tokens will be acquired through private offering in exchange for payment in one of the two major cryptocurrencies (BTC, ETH). The Boson token is a smart-contract based digital instrument, which will entitle the holder to the Company's profit sharing scheme.

Boson tokens are locked tokens. Once Boson tokens are acquired by the holder, the holder will not be able to resend or transfer the Boson tokens to any other person. In case the holder will resend or transfer the Boson tokens, he/she automatically loses the entitlement to the Company's profit. The holder of the token acknowledges and agrees with the fact that the Boson token isn't liquid. Liquidations are dealt with on client to client basis.

The Boson token acts as a vehicle through which Company's profits are shared among the holders. Company's profits are shared based on the following scheme:

A dividend is based on the Company profit and management decision about paid off. After successful acquisition of any of the portfolio projects or companies by third party materializes, then Blue Boson will use 50 % of the sum that was successfully gained by the initial investment will be used for re-investing in further acquisition rounds, and 50 % of the sum will be distributed among the Boson token holders based on the amount of tokens held.

Distribution of profits will be as following:

- Acquisition Income – Initial Investment = PROFIT,
- PROFIT * 0,5 = Amount to be distributed on pro rata basis among Boson holders; profits will be distributed in ETH to the same user's ETH cryptocurrency wallet as destination wallet for Boson tokens,
- PROFIT * 0,5 = Amount of the total profit to be reinvested in Blue Boson portfolio of projects and companies
- Initial investment + Amount of profit funds to be reinvested in Blue Boson portfolio = amount that will be used for further investment rounds.

The calculation of the PROFIT is carried out once a year at the Annual General Meeting of the Company. If there is a PROFIT to be distributed after such calculation, the PROFIT will be paid to the Boson Token Holders not later than sixty calendar days posterior to the day of the Annual General Meeting of the Company. For the purposes of PROFIT distribution, the Majority Shareholders of the Company represent and warrant, that they will vote in favor of dividend payment at the Annual General Meeting of the Company where deliberation about financial statements and profit distribution takes place. BLUE BOSON LTD represents and warrants that it will transfer the right to a dividend in the corresponding part to each Token holder after the Annual General Meeting of the Company have approved the payment of dividends in that year. (This only occurs when there is a PROFIT to be distributed between the Token holders based on the calculation). If the acquired income is lower than initial investment, Blue Boson will use the whole amount for further investment only. There is a total of 1,799 million Boson tokens (BT) what represent value of the Company according to Company valuation made by official authority in year 2019, base on Intellectual Property and business valuation and 156,326,395 of them are Blue Boson token sale project subject. The Boson token distribution starts on October 1st 2020.

The process for the payment of the profit is the following:

Boson Token can be acquired during the Token distribution directly from the Company. Methods of bonification and payment are indicated in the administration. Blue Boson has the right not to equilibrate or accept payment from users who violate statutory and governmental conditions, or if prohibited by their own jurisdiction of citizenship.

Blue Boson is fully compliant with AML standards of prevention of legalization of funds from terrorist or other illegal activity, the Customer honestly declares that he/she does not act contrary to this fact by agreeing to these T&C.

Knowledge required

The User undertaking to acquire Boson token in relation to the Blue Boson Device Sale should ensure that she/he understands and has significant experience of cryptocurrencies, blockchain systems and services, and that she/he fully understands the risks associated with the Token acquiring as well as the mechanism related to the use and custody of cryptocurrencies.

Company shall not be responsible for any loss of Boson Token or situations making it impossible to access to Boson Token, which may result in any actions or omissions of the future User or any person undertaking to acquire Boson.

User registration and Compliance

To become registered as a User, you must duly and correctly fill in and enter the registration form through the online Platform. To become registered User, the User must provide true and complete information requested in the Registration Form, as well as any additional steps or actions required by instructions included in the Process (e.g., User confirmation of his registered email address). After receiving an e-mail with confirmation of the registration to the platform a person becomes a registered User.

Blue Boson devices and Tokens Acquisitions

By accessing the platform, the user confirms that he has become acquainted with these T&C, which forms an integral part of the pre-contractual notice and agrees with their wording valid and effective at the time of registration. In accordance with these T&C, BBLTD (as the distributor) undertakes to transfer the right of ownership in the Tokens to the buyer when the User deposits the funds required by these T&C (exact sum of money that is for the product User sold or bought) and sale of company or portfolio projects was finalized.

In the case of making Company's deposit for devices purchase user shall transfer Ethereum ('ETH') or Bitcoin ('BTC') to a cryptocurrency wallet address generated on the platform for the purpose of purchasing devices.

The User fulfils the agreement by exchanging their BTC or ETH for Boson tokens on the platform in the amount of individual entry. The agreement is entered into and becomes effective when the User's individual entry is delivered to the Company's cryptocurrency wallet and visible on the platform. If the User fails to execute the transaction within 7 days from the moment of the registration and individual entry is not delivered to the Company's cryptocurrency wallet, Company is entitled to cancel User's account.

User may only get Boson Token, when he/she participates in a sale of a device or Blue Boson product that was executed in cash. Token Holder acknowledges and agrees, that Tokens will be assigned to each Token Holder after a company or portfolio project is acquired by third party. Meanwhile, Token Holders will be assigned points on the Platform that will be converted in the Tokens after the beforementioned acquisition is successfully finalized.

The conversion rate is 1 EUR = 1 Token (BT)

User must provide an address on ETH blockchain that is fully ERC-20 compliant and able to receive the Company's Token.

For any errors in data transmission, the seller is not responsible.

The Company fulfils the agreement by sending the Tokens to the User's application platform after user's BTC or ETH are exchanged for Boson devices on the platform.

Token prices are contractual and may vary depending on the supply and demand, as well as the market itself, and are listed without VAT and any fees set by law.

Legal duties concerning acquisition of Tokens

No multiple registrations

The User or other Person may not register more than once to use the Platform of the Company. For these purposes, no User or other Person is entitled to use fake profiles, fake identity, identity of another Person, or another User's profile or registration data to check in or register with the Company or to use the Platform. No User or other Person shall use or attempt to use the systems of automated registration. This is what every user claim to be honest.

Obligation to notify third Person's breach

Any User accessing or using the Platform is obliged to comply with all of the Terms and with the laws applicable to him. Should the User learn of any breach of these Terms or of the applicable laws by any third Person, the User shall promptly notify the Company of such breach and provide identification of such third Person, if such Person is known to the user. If the prompt notification is impossible, the User shall notify the Company of such breach without unnecessary delay.

Obligation to update information

It is the User's sole responsibility to keep all the information and data provided to the Company up to date so that the Company can use them for the purposes of communication, transfers and other legitimate purposes. The User acknowledges and agrees that any communication or transfer made by the Company, which is based on the latest information and data provided by the User, shall be deemed duly made.

Communication and costs

The User expressly agrees that all communication between him and the Company shall be carried out through the electronic solutions, mainly through the Platform. This does not prevent the right of the Company to introduce and communicate with the User by other electronic means of communication, such as e-mail, text messages, social media channels, or other. The communication between the Company and the User carried out through the Platform, and the communication of the Company with the User by using the e-mail address or mobile phone number registered by the Company as belonging to the User, shall be deemed duly and properly made between the Company and the respective User. The User acknowledges and agrees that all expenses of such communication, such as fees and other costs (mobile operator bills, rates, data limits, etc.) incurred in this regard by the User, shall be fully borne and paid by the User.

Continued obligation of Users and other Persons to ensure compliance

A Person attempting to access, use or register with the Platform is obliged, prior to such act, to ensure that he is not subject to any Restriction and that he is allowed to do so by all applicable laws and regulations. In case of any doubt in this regard, such Person undertakes to seek and receive independent professional legal advice. Any User learning of such limitation that arose after his registration, or learning of a risk that such limitation may be or become applicable to him, undertakes to seek independent professional legal advice on this issue to make sure he complies with all limitations based on the laws, regulations and Restrictions applicable to him, and if he learns of any such limitation, he undertakes to cease using the Platform or any of the Platform functionality which would violate any such limitation. If the Restriction so requires, the User is obliged to inform the Company of such event. The Users and other Persons expressly acknowledge and agree the Company shall not be held responsible or liable on any grounds for any breach, tort, crime or any other offence, or loss of any type, incurred as a result of a breach by any User or other Person of any Restriction applicable to him.

Anti-Money Laundering (AML) and KYC Policy

Each Token buyer represents that any consideration to acquire the Token pursuant to this Agreement does not derive from activity that is or was contrary to law or from a person or location that is or was subject to any embargo or other economic sanction and that no consideration to acquire the Token in accordance with this Agreement will provide the basis for any liability for any person under any anti money laundering laws or economic sanction laws. Each Token Buyer represents that neither such Token Buyer nor any of its nominees, agents, or affiliates is on the specially designated OFAC list, other control list or similar European Union watch list.

Company has adopted a Know Your Customer Policy" (the "Policy"), which may be amended or changed from time to time as described herein these Terms. Company may enact reasonable procedures and processes to administer this Policy and to identify and verify the identity of any user of its Platform, which may include but is not limited to procedures and processes intended to: designation of a compliance officer; employee training; auditing; request evidence or documentation necessary to verify User's identity and other necessary information; monitoring of User's Tokens and account; and use third-party service providers to verify the identity of any and all users of the Platform. The Company shall not accept or process any Token acquiring that it deems to be in violation of its KYC or Legal or Fiscal compliance policies.

The User understands that his request to acquire Boson Token will be accepted and he will receive Boson only after having successfully passed through Blue Boson SE or a third-party KYC process. This means that Boson will not be distributed until the User has passed through this screening successfully. If the User fails to pass the KYC screening, the offer to acquire Boson will be rejected and she/he will not receive her/his Boson.

Users accept that Company can refuse accepting the offer to acquire Boson which is not compliant with the internal due diligence.

Each of the Users represents and warrants that all funds used for the acquisition of Tokens originate from lawful and legitimate sources. In particular each of the Users represents and warrants that such funds do not originate from any activity considered criminal or otherwise illegal in any relevant jurisdiction. Each of the Users undertakes not to use any of the Tokens to commit, finance, facilitate or reward any act, which constitutes a crime or similar offence under the laws of any relevant jurisdiction. Each of the Users represents and warrants that the funds used for the acquisition of Tokens are his own, that he does not acquire the Tokens as an agent of a third Person, and that he does not intend nor he shall use Tokens or any proceeds for legalizing the income originating from any activity which is considered illegal under any applicable law or regulation. These provisions do not preclude application of the mandatory provisions of the applicable laws setting out any further anti money laundering measures or rules. Each of the Users acknowledges that under the applicable laws, the Company may be requested to provide the public authority or government body certain information and data available to the Company, which could be used for identifying the User and/or his transactions. For such events the User agrees with and authorizes the Company to disclose such data and information to the respective public authorities or government bodies in the extent required by the applicable laws.

Risks

The user understands and acknowledges that there might be some risks owing to the development process, company success, as well as risks relating to blockchain, transactions or unanticipated risks. By taking part in the token distribution a user confirms that he/she is aware of the following and/or other associated unmentioned risks and that the company would not be liable to bear any loss owing to these risks. If User is not willing to acknowledge and accept these risks in the future do not acquire Boson Tokens. The probable future risks might include but are not limited to the following:

Risk of software weakness

The user acknowledges that he/she is aware of the fact that there are no warranties or assurances to the perfect, uninterrupted or error-free working of the underlying software. Thus, there is an inherent risk that the software could contain defects, weaknesses, vulnerabilities, viruses or bugs, causing inter alia, the complete loss of contributions and/or STU. If such bugs, defects and/or viruses affect the creation of Boson tokens or in some way affect the contributions of the contributor, the user agrees that the company in no situation shall be held responsible for the loss and/or be liable to bear any loss and/or return of the amount.

Regulatory risk

Blockchain is a new technology and many aspects of blockchain are yet improving and evolving including its development, utilization as well as associated regulations.

The user acknowledges and accepts that the current regulations and laws on blockchain might be changed in future and that these regulations might affect their experience. Future regulations might affect the current smart contract system and/or the Boson platform and lead to termination or loss of Boson tokens for the buyer.

Risk of mining attacks

Users acknowledges and accepts that despite blockchain being a very secure platform, there might be some risks of theft and mining attacks, double-spend attacks, majority mining power attacks, “selfish- mining” attacks, rare condition attacks, malware attacks, denial of service attacks, consensus-based attacks, smurfing and spoofing. Any such successful attacks can result in loss of Boson tokens, improper functioning of software, irregular transactions.

Risk of incompatible wallet services

Boson tokens are compatible tokens thus User shall first ensure that User own a compatible token wallet or else User might lose access to the Boson tokens User’s acquire, and the company will hold no responsibility for it.

Risk arising from taxes

There is no certain tax characterization of the Boson tokens thus the contributor shall refer to his/her tax advisor for the transfer, usage and storage of Boson tokens. The customer shall be well aware of the tax regulations including withholding taxes, transfer taxes, value added taxes, income taxes and similar taxes, levies, duties or other charges and tax reporting requirements applicable in their geographical area. The contributor shall bear any loss resulting from not adhering to regional and national tax regulations him/herself.

No assumed control of the Company over the Platform

Each of the Users represents and warrants that although the Company has developed or provided for the Platform certain basic software, design applications and functionalities for the Platform, the Company effectively cannot and shall not control the User-created content of the Platform. Therefore, the Company is not responsible for the Platform and its content, including its use or misuse by any third Person to the detriment of any User or other Person.

Important Disclaimer

Regulatory authorities are carefully scrutinizing businesses and operations associated to cryptocurrencies in the world. In that respect, regulatory measures, investigations or actions may affect Boson’s business and even limit or prevent it from developing its operations in the future. Any person undertaking to acquire Boson Token must be aware that Blue Boson business model and the T&C may change or need to be modified because of new regulatory and compliance requirements from any applicable laws in any jurisdictions. In such case, any person undertaking to acquire Boson Token acknowledges and understands, that neither Blue Boson SE nor any of its affiliates shall be held liable for any direct or indirect loss or damages caused by such changes.

Blue Boson SE will do its best to launch its operations and sell its devices. Any person undertaking to acquire Boson acknowledges and understands that Boson does not provide any guarantee that it will manage to achieve it.

Acquiring Boson Token shall not grant any right or influence over Boson's organization and governance to the Users. These tokens will be issued by a technical process referred to as a «Blockchain». This is an open source IT protocol over which the Company has no rights or liability in terms of its development and operation. The token distribution mechanism will be controlled by a Smart Contract; this involves a computer program that can be executed on the Ethereum network or on another blockchain network that is compatible with the Smart Contract programming language. User acknowledges and understands therefore that Blue Boson SE (incl. its bodies and employees) assumes no liability or responsibility for any loss or damage that would result from or relate to the incapacity to use the Boson Token.

Boson Token is based on the Ethereum protocol. Therefore, any malfunction, unplanned function or unexpected operation of the Ethereum protocol may cause the Boson Token network to malfunction or operate in a way that is not expected.

Representation and Warranties

By participating in the Token distribution and sale of devices to acquire Boson, the User agrees to the T&C and in particular, she/he represents and warrants to the Company (and the Company when accepting the offer relies on such representations and warranties) that she/he:

- is authorized and has full power to acquire Boson Token according to the laws that apply in her/his jurisdiction of domicile;
- is not a U.S., China or Hong Kong citizen, resident or entity ("Restricted Person") nor is acquiring Boson Token or signing on behalf of a Restricted Person;
- is familiar with all related regulations in the specific jurisdiction in which she/he is based and that acquiring cryptographic tokens in that jurisdiction is not prohibited, restricted or subject to additional conditions of any kind;
- is not acting for the purpose of speculative investment;
- lives in a jurisdiction which allows Blue Boson SE to distribute the Boson Token without requiring any local authorization;
- will not use the Token acquisition for any illegal activity, including but not limited to money laundering and/or the financing of terrorism;
- is solely responsible for determining whether the acquisition of Boson Token is appropriate for her/him;
- understand the use of blockchain, token and cryptocurrencies and risks associated with them.

Intellectual Property Rights

To the extent that copyright, trademark or any other intellectual property rights exist in the Blue Boson SE, such as software, know-how, analysis or programs, those existing and future copyrights and other intellectual and industrial rights (hereinafter "IP Rights") belong solely to Blue Boson SE and its affiliated companies and you as an owner of Boson or user of Boson platform do not and will not have any related rights in such IP Rights.

Limitation of Liability

Blue Boson SE as well as its officers, directors, agents, joint ventures, employees, suppliers and advisors and anyone acting on its behalf, assumes no liability or responsibility for any loss arisen from the Token distribution or acquisition of Boson Token, arising out of or related to the use of the Boson or any technical, interruption or malfunction of the Boson platform. The limitation of liability set out above shall not be applicable in the event that Blue Boson SE or a Blue Boson SE employee, has caused the damage by intentional misconduct or by gross negligence.

Severability

If any of the provisions of the T&C or of the Agreement are deemed to be invalid, void or unenforceable, the remaining provisions shall continue in full force and effect.

Applicable Law and Jurisdiction

The T&C, use of the platform and acquisition of Boson Token through Token distribution or otherwise are subject to and governed by Slovak Law. Any User and Blue Boson SE agree to seek an amicable settlement prior to bringing any legal action. All disputes arising from or under these T&C shall be resolved before competent courts in accordance with the Slovak procedure on civil disputes.
